

Like John Muir, of Dunbar, Scotland, in 1849, all the school children in the United Kingdom and many other parts of the World have been told, at short notice, that they will not be going back to school for some time.

John is then taken away on a ship for five and a half weeks. It is the beginning of an amazing Voyage of Discovery, bringing him into a New World.

Let us go on our own Voyage of Discovery, into our New Reality. Our home is our ship. Our parent is our Captain.

Draw a happy face or a sad face:

How do you feel about not going back to school? .....
(Write more if you like).....
.....

How do you feel about your 'ship'? .....
(Write more if you like).....
.....

How do you feel about your 'Captain'? .....
(Write more if you like).....

What are your thoughts on anything else? .....
.....
.....
