

Who's on the Money?

John Muir's grandfather, David Gilrye, gave him a very special coin before he left for America.

The coin is called a sovereign.

Who do you think was depicted on that coin?

Can you find out how much that coin would have been worth in today's terms?

Let's have a look around our own homes to see what coins/money we have.

What or who is depicted on the notes or coins?
